

A strength-guided, goal-oriented approach to the positive growth and development of people and services.

Domestic Violence and Young Children April 10, 2014

Domestic violence is a child protection issue and exposure to it puts children at risk of physical and emotional harm. This workshop will explain the impact of exposure to domestic violence upon children from a developmental perspective, types of domestic violence and the reporting obligations of the ECE.

I am a

Answer Choices –	Responses –
– Child Care Provider (Front line)	57.69% 15
– Supervisor	7.69% 2
– Owner/ Operator	3.85% 1
– Parent	3.85% 1
– Professional Educator	26.92% 7
– Other (please specify	7.69% 2

Q2

Please indicate your level of satisfaction for the following: (1 being lowest and 5 being highest).

	1 –	2 –	3 –	4 –	5 –	Total –	Average Rating –
– Your knowledge of topic before attending the workshop	0.00% 0	7.69% 2	50.00% 13	34.62% 9	7.69% 2	26	3.42
– Your knowledge of topic after attending the workshop	0.00% 0	0.00% 0	7.69% 2	42.31% 11	50.00% 13	26	4.42
– Overall workshop was	0.00% 0	0.00% 0	11.54% 3	34.62% 9	53.85% 14	26	4.42
– Quality of facilitator's	0.00% 0	0.00% 0	3.85% 1	34.62% 9	61.54% 16	26	4.58

	1-	2-	3-	4-	5-	Total-	Average Rating-
presentation was

Q3

Additional comments:

- Very well presented and very useful for future reference
- Very helpful
- Spoke very well. Interesting
- The workshop was helpful for me to know more about violence and how can I support the child if he/she is involved in violence
- Topic is very unique and interesting, very informative. This topic allowed you to be more aware of violence around you and what to look for
- Great presentation. Thank you for not having us do those annoying ice breakers or group activities
- The workshop was quite informative and interesting. Learnt a lot
- Thank you for helping me understand different situations of domestic violence. I really appreciate your real stories and support
- Great speaker. Valuable information that is necessary to know to work in a childcare centre
- Was very informative and was very happy to know Gary Direnfeld was giving expert opinion on these matters
- I liked how he used real life situations related to the field. It was very eye opening to see how the children are affected by every aspect
- Presentation was good
- It was wonderful workshop. He is a amazing speaker, I learned a lot from him. He described that topic very well
- My question on cultural discipline wasn't addressed
- You are a great presenter - I also loved your show!
- Great information given tonight
- Thank you for your open, honest conversation. The information was excellent, clean, and concise
- This workshop was really informative, interesting, and it was kind of something that I really suffered with in my childhood back home
- Great advice! Practical to the point. I am encouraged to read more!

Q4

I will implement the information from this workshop by:

20 Suter Crescent, Dundas, Ontario, Canada L9H 6R5 Tel: 905 628-4847
With a part time office in Georgina, Ontario – by appointment through my Dundas office only www.yoursocialworker.com

- Share info with other - seek for more cases of violence
- Being mindful of the information presented
- Using this information, the problems provided me in the workshop. I will use this information in my work field and make a difference
- Being more aware of children's actions/things they say
- Being more observant in the classroom and listen to children more often when they tell a story about home
- Getting information from our local women's shelter
- By interfering in the domestic violence if there is any in the neighborhood
- Using what I know from this and putting this towards the children and parents and this will help guide me to better understand the situation
- Re-reading the handouts for guidance and use resources to further the information to others
- Searching your website
- Sharing with colleagues. More aware of what to look for in the children
- Being more aware of children's actions/things they say
- Sharing some key points with my co-workers -Using the information with the children, families, and other professionals (ECEs) that I work with
- Sharing with other coworkers. Reading more to expand my knowledge