

Mental Health Professionals (MHPs) - Taking Charge of Your Practice

Gary Direnfeld, MSW, RSW

MHPs depend upon referrals from collaborative lawyers to sustain their practice for the basic trilogy of services (Facilitator, Coach, Child Specialist). This workshop will focus on strategies to drive your practice with a suite of additional services for separated parents and targeted marketing strategies to make your practice successful.

Mental Health Professionals: Taking Charge of Your Practice
Answer Options	Strongly Agree	Agree	Not Sure	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Rating Average	Response Count
1. The course was consistent with its description and title.	9	1	1	0	0	4.73	11
2. The course objectives were communicated and met.	9	2	0	0	0	4.82	11
3. The presenter(s) delivered a well prepared and effective course.	9	2	0	0	0	4.82	11
4. The course expanded your knowledge in this topic.	9	2	0	0	0	4.82	11
5. The course content was relevant to your professional activities.	9	1	1	0	0	4.73	11
6. You would recommend this course to others.	9	1	1	0	0	4.73	11

How would you rate this program overall?
Answer Options	Excellent	Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor	Rating Average	Response Count
	7	3	1	0	0	4.55	11

Gary Direnfeld, MSW, RSW
Answer Options	Excellent	Very Good	Good	Fair	Poor	Rating Average	Response Count
Knowledge and Expertise	9	2	0	0	0	4.82	11
Teaching Ability	8	3	0	0	0	4.73	11

Comments:

1. Generous and practical
2. Worth my time. Thank you.
3. Excellent.
4. I wanted to hear more about how to grow a collaborative practice. I didn't need tips on growing a clinical practice
5. Great presenter!
6. This program helped clarify what an active website means and its importance regardless of your success level as a therapist. It also had elements that I will be taking back to the associate therapists that are just beginning their practices to help with developing their presence in the marketplace.
7. Gary is a master presenter. He is entertaining and has great knowledge.
8. Gary was very generous offering his website materials to attendees.