Hello Gary,

I have compiled all of the participants comments from your workshop at the CHANGE Child Care Conference in Brantford in April. I have provided it to you exactly how the participants wrote it.

Thank you so much for sharing your wisdom and knowledge at the conference.

Managing the Unmanageable

- We covered the topics we chose to talk about and stayed on track.
- It was a very informative and interesting workshop. The presenter did a great job of addressing the participants' interests.
- Very interesting and informative. Loved how he directed his learning about what we wanted to learn.
- Very group discussion oriented. Interactive and thought provoking. Great discussion and key examples.
- Very informative, excellent presenter, interactive. Well done. I learned a lot and could of listened and participated for another two hours. EXCELLENT!
- Presenter was remarkable. Really knowledgeable about topic. Would like to get him to do workshop for where I work. Lots of questions and answers.
- Excellent! Gary is a very interesting speaker. He really tried to help us with our issues. I would definitely attend a workshop with him in the future.
- This guy is an excellent speaker; this is the second time I've heard him speak. This could be an all day workshop.
- Gary is great! To the point, informative and full of fun workshop style works for me, but this workshop needs a longer time slot because all so very interesting!
- Very good. Understands how/why the children are acting/reacting.
- Interesting, informative and interactive. Presenter very knowledgeable. Could have stayed longer!
- Speaker was great. Learned a lot. Enjoyed and kept interest. Would love to have him again.
- Great info about child/parent issues.
